No- 774/285/R-DU/2021 Date- 23rd November 2021

Notice

In reference of the notification no. 756/285/R-DU/2021 Date 12th November 2021 regarding mid-semester examination in offline mode, some students have brought to the notice of the University administration that they will appear in some competitive examinations during 25th November 2021-05th December 2021. Such students have also requested the University to conduct mid-semester examinations in the online mode. The issue has been discussed with all the Heads and I/Cs of the schools and departments.

In view of the discussion, it has been decided that examinations will be conducted in the offline mode as per the schedule. However, those students, who are unable to appear in the examination due to overlapping schedule of some competitive examination or unavoidable circumstances including some medical emergency, may submit their applications along with the self-attested xerox copy of their admit card (issued to them for appearing in the competitive examination) or valid medical certificate, to the concerned Head or I/C of Departments or School of the University. University will decide to conduct the mid-semester examinations of such students in the next month.
