Course: MSI/MSP301: Internship/Project

Credit: 2 (L-T-P: 0+2+0)

Under this course, the students will either be doing the Internship in a media organization or will complete a Project under a faculty supervisor/advisor as detailed below:

Internship: This will be a supervised work at organizations engaged in professional journalism, advertising, public relations, marketing communications, media production and public communication activities. The exposure to the industry is expected to help students make informed career choices.

Mode of evaluation: Evaluation will be based on Internship Report and Viva Voce. The faculty Advisor/Supervisor concerned will do evaluation. There will not be mid-semester exam. Evaluation shall be done at the end of the Internship, carrying 100 marks.

Project: This will aim at bringing together the knowledge and skills acquired by students in the form of a Project Report over a chosen topic or a Production over a chosen topic (a production may be for audio-visual media or audio media or print media or multi media). The Project shall be done under a faculty Supervisor/Advisor who will be approving the topic chosen by the students for project work. The project will require the students to engage in-depth with a topic and to carry out primary investigation thereof. Typically, it will require field work/library search, analysis, thinking, and the presentation of these findings in a manner appropriate to the topic.

Mode of evaluation: Evaluation will be based on Project Report or Production and Viva Voce. The faculty Advisor/Supervisor concerned will do evaluation. There will not be mid-semester exam. Evaluation shall be done at the end of the Project, carrying 100 marks.

Course Title: MSI/MSP351: Internship /Project

Credit: 2 (L-T-P: 0+2+0)

Under this course, the students will either be doing the Internship in a media organization or will complete a Project under a faculty supervisor/advisor as detailed below:

Internship: This will be a supervised work at organizations engaged in professional journalism, advertising, public relations, marketing communications, media production and public communication activities. The exposure to the industry is expected to help students make informed career choices.

Mode of evaluation: Evaluation will be based on Internship Report and Viva Voce. The faculty Advisor/Supervisor concerned will do evaluation. There will not be mid-semester exam. Evaluation shall be done at the end of the Internship, carrying 100 marks.

Project: This will aim at bringing together the knowledge and skills acquired by students in the form of a Project Report over a chosen topic or a Production over a chosen topic (a production may be for audio-visual media or audio media or print media or multi media). The Project shall be done under a faculty Supervisor/Advisor who will be approving the topic chosen by the students for project work. The project will require the students to engage in-depth with a topic and to carry out primary investigation thereof. Typically, it will require field work/library search, analysis, thinking, and the presentation of these findings in a manner appropriate to the topic.

Mode of evaluation: Evaluation will be based on Project Report or Production and Viva Voce. The faculty Advisor/Supervisor concerned will do evaluation. There will not be mid-semester exam. Evaluation shall be done at the end of the Project, carrying 100 marks.
